Twice Born Ministry Bible School — Layer 4 Career Tracks

Course Modules

ECON-102 — Lesson 1: Macroeconomics and Providence

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 1 of Macroeconomics (ECON-102). This session explores Macroeconomics and Providence within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Macroeconomics and Providence: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Macroeconomics and Providence

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Practical Focus

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Macroeconomics and Providence should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 1: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Macroeconomics and Providence align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 1 Summary: We examined Macroeconomics and Providence through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 2. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Theme: Inflation and Honest Weights

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

Practical Focus

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Inflation and Honest Weights should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 4: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 4 Summary: We examined Inflation and Honest Weights through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

ECON-102 — Lesson 5: Aggregate Demand and Supply

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 5 of Macroeconomics (ECON-102). This session explores Aggregate Demand and Supply within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Aggregate Demand and Supply: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Aggregate Demand and Supply

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

ECON-102 — Lesson 8: International Trade and Comparative Advantage

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 8 of Macroeconomics (ECON-102). This session explores International Trade and Comparative Advantage within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying International Trade and Comparative Advantage: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: International Trade and Comparative Advantage

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

Practical Focus

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

International Trade and Comparative Advantage should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 8: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does International Trade and Comparative Advantage align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 8 Summary: We examined International Trade and Comparative Advantage through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Business Cycles and Prudence: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Business Cycles and Prudence

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

ECON-102 — Lesson 11: Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 11 of Macroeconomics (ECON-102). This session explores Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Practical Focus

National income, unemployment, inflation, fiscal and monetary policy.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 11: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 11 Summary: We examined Debt, Deficits, and Intergenerational Justice through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

ECON-102 — Lesson 12: Capstone: Macroeconomic Outlook Essay

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 12 of Macroeconomics (ECON-102). This session explores Capstone: Macroeconomic Outlook Essay within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

Christian Ethics Integration — Integrity

A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight (Proverbs 11:1, KJV). Honest weights apply to ledgers, polls, and platform metrics alike.

Apply this principle while studying Capstone: Macroeconomic Outlook Essay: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Capstone: Macroeconomic Outlook Essay

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.
