Twice Born Ministry Bible School — Layer 4 Career Tracks

Course Modules

FIN-305 — Lesson 1: Modern Portfolio Theory

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 1 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Modern Portfolio Theory within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Modern Portfolio Theory: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Modern Portfolio Theory

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Practical Focus

Modern portfolio theory, asset allocation, and endowment stewardship.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Modern Portfolio Theory should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 1: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Modern Portfolio Theory align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 1 Summary: We examined Modern Portfolio Theory through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 2. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Core Teaching

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

FIN-305 — Lesson 4: Risk-Return Tradeoff

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 4 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Risk-Return Tradeoff within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Risk-Return Tradeoff: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Risk-Return Tradeoff

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

Practical Focus

Modern portfolio theory, asset allocation, and endowment stewardship.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Risk-Return Tradeoff should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 4: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Risk-Return Tradeoff align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 4 Summary: We examined Risk-Return Tradeoff through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

FIN-305 — Lesson 5: Alternative Investments

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 5 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Alternative Investments within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Alternative Investments: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Alternative Investments

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

Practical Focus

Modern portfolio theory, asset allocation, and endowment stewardship.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

FIN-305 — Lesson 8: Performance Measurement

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 8 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Performance Measurement within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Performance Measurement: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Performance Measurement

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

Practical Focus

Modern portfolio theory, asset allocation, and endowment stewardship.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Performance Measurement should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 8: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Performance Measurement align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 8 Summary: We examined Performance Measurement through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 9. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight (Proverbs 11:1, KJV). Honest weights apply to ledgers, polls, and platform metrics alike.

FIN-305 — Lesson 11: Fiduciary Duty

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 11 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Fiduciary Duty within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track applies Kingdom Capital (TBM) themes to entrepreneurship without prosperity gospel error. When secular MBA models conflict with Scripture, students learn to choose faithfulness over shortcuts.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Fiduciary Duty: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Fiduciary Duty

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men (Colossians 3:23, KJV). Vocation—whether pulpit, plumbing, or programming—is worship when offered unto Christ.

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

Practical Focus

Modern portfolio theory, asset allocation, and endowment stewardship.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Fiduciary Duty should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Business practice: Apply lesson concepts to a real or simulated venture. Document decisions in your Kingdom Business journal.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 11: Analyze a business case where profit conflicts with truth. Write a decision memo citing Proverbs and course readings.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Fiduciary Duty align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 11 Summary: We examined Fiduciary Duty through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. FIN-305 — Lesson 12: Capstone: Endowment Policy Statement

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 12 of Portfolio Management & Stewardship (FIN-305). This session explores Capstone: Endowment Policy Statement within the Track B — Business / Entrepreneur pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

Christian Ethics Integration — Integrity

A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight (Proverbs 11:1, KJV). Honest weights apply to ledgers, polls, and platform metrics alike.

Apply this principle while studying Capstone: Endowment Policy Statement: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Capstone: Endowment Policy Statement

No man can serve two masters: ye cannot serve God and mammon (Matthew 6:24, KJV). Financial success without spiritual allegiance is idolatry. Stewardship disciplines keep mammon in its place.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches (Proverbs 22:1, KJV). Kingdom business ethics begin with reputation rooted in integrity, not merely quarterly metrics.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
