Twice Born Ministry Bible School — Layer 4 Career Tracks

Course Modules

MEDA-102 — Lesson 1: Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 1 of Podcasting & Audio Ministry (MEDA-102). This session explores Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice within the Track H — Communication / Media Ministry pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track equips journalists, broadcasters, podcasters, and filmmakers to communicate truth with excellence for gospel impact.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Truth

Buy the truth, and sell it not (Proverbs 23:23, KJV). Financial reports, news scripts, and research data must reflect reality—not convenience.

Apply this principle while studying Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour (Exodus 20:16, KJV). Journalism and media ministry must pursue truth with courage—even when inconvenient to power or popularity.

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt (Colossians 4:6, KJV). Communication platforms are pulpits of influence; wield them with integrity and love for neighbor.

Practical Focus

Podcast planning, recording, editing, RSS distribution, and audio ministry.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 1: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 1 Summary: We examined Audio Ministry and the Still Small Voice through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour (Exodus 20:16, KJV). Journalism and media ministry must pursue truth with courage—even when inconvenient to power or popularity.

Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt (Colossians 4:6, KJV). Communication platforms are pulpits of influence; wield them with integrity and love for neighbor.

Practical Focus

Podcast planning, recording, editing, RSS distribution, and audio ministry.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

MEDA-102 — Lesson 5: Editing, Music Licensing, and Copyright

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 5 of Podcasting & Audio Ministry (MEDA-102). This session explores Editing, Music Licensing, and Copyright within the Track H — Communication / Media Ministry pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track equips journalists, broadcasters, podcasters, and filmmakers to communicate truth with excellence for gospel impact.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Dignity

So God created man in his own image (Genesis 1:27, KJV). Patients, employees, tenants, and citizens bear dignity that policies must protect.

Apply this principle while studying Editing, Music Licensing, and Copyright: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Editing, Music Licensing, and Copyright

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour (Exodus 20:16, KJV). Journalism and media ministry must pursue truth with courage—even when inconvenient to power or popularity.

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

MEDA-102 — Lesson 8: Monetization Without Compromise

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 8 of Podcasting & Audio Ministry (MEDA-102). This session explores Monetization Without Compromise within the Track H — Communication / Media Ministry pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track equips journalists, broadcasters, podcasters, and filmmakers to communicate truth with excellence for gospel impact.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Dignity

So God created man in his own image (Genesis 1:27, KJV). Patients, employees, tenants, and citizens bear dignity that policies must protect.

Apply this principle while studying Monetization Without Compromise: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Monetization Without Compromise

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt (Colossians 4:6, KJV). Communication platforms are pulpits of influence; wield them with integrity and love for neighbor.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour (Exodus 20:16, KJV). Journalism and media ministry must pursue truth with courage—even when inconvenient to power or popularity.

Practical Focus

Podcast planning, recording, editing, RSS distribution, and audio ministry.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- Romans 10:17 (KJV)
- • TECH-709

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Monetization Without Compromise should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 8: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Monetization Without Compromise align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 8 Summary: We examined Monetization Without Compromise through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

MEDA-102 — Lesson 11: Crisis Communication via Audio

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 11 of Podcasting & Audio Ministry (MEDA-102). This session explores Crisis Communication via Audio within the Track H — Communication / Media Ministry pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track equips journalists, broadcasters, podcasters, and filmmakers to communicate truth with excellence for gospel impact.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Dignity

So God created man in his own image (Genesis 1:27, KJV). Patients, employees, tenants, and citizens bear dignity that policies must protect.

Apply this principle while studying Crisis Communication via Audio: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Crisis Communication via Audio

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour (Exodus 20:16, KJV). Journalism and media ministry must pursue truth with courage—even when inconvenient to power or popularity.

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt (Colossians 4:6, KJV). Communication platforms are pulpits of influence; wield them with integrity and love for neighbor.

Practical Focus

Podcast planning, recording, editing, RSS distribution, and audio ministry.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- Romans 10:17 (KJV)
- • TECH-709

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Crisis Communication via Audio should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 11: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Crisis Communication via Audio align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 11 Summary: We examined Crisis Communication via Audio through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 12. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.
