Learning Outcomes

Upon completion, students will be able to:

1. Explain core concepts and vocabulary for this vocational domain at college introductory level.
2. Apply biblical ethics when secular models conflict with Kingdom priorities.

3. Complete practical assignments, scenarios, or lab exercises with documented integrity.
4. Articulate connections between vocation, stewardship, and local church ministry.
5. Pass module quizzes and capstone assessments at 70% or higher.

Assessment Overview

- Module quizzes: JSON per module (multiple choice + short answer).
- Assignments: 3–4 rubric-graded projects.
- Group projects: 2 collaborative exercises.
- Final exam: Comprehensive short and extended responses.
- Video scripts: 3–5 instructor scripts for optional production.

Christian Guardrails

- KJV citation standard; Christ-centered instruction.
- Career exploration does not replace licensure, trade apprenticeships, or professional counsel where required.
- AI tools may assist research but not replace original work or pastoral judgment.

Twice Born Ministry Bible School — Layer 4 Career Tracks

Course Modules

POL-101 — Lesson 1: Government as Ordained Authority

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 1 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Government as Ordained Authority within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Justice

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; to do justly, and to love mercy (Micah 6:8, KJV). Legal and policy study serves neighbor-love, not partisan idolatry.

Apply this principle while studying Government as Ordained Authority: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Government as Ordained Authority

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.

Practical Focus

Constitutional framework, branches of government, elections, and Christian civic engagement.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Government as Ordained Authority should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 1: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Government as Ordained Authority align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 1 Summary: We examined Government as Ordained Authority through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 2. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

POL-101 — Lesson 3: Congress: Structure and Lawmaking

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 3 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Congress: Structure and Lawmaking within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

Christian Ethics Integration — Dignity

So God created man in his own image (Genesis 1:27, KJV). Patients, employees, tenants, and citizens bear dignity that policies must protect.

Apply this principle while studying Congress: Structure and Lawmaking: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Congress: Structure and Lawmaking

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.

POL-101 — Lesson 4: The Presidency and Executive Power

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 4 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL - 101). This session explores The Presidency and Executive Power within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Justice

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; to do justly, and to love mercy (Micah 6:8, KJV). Legal and policy study serves neighbor-love, not partisan idolatry.

Apply this principle while studying The Presidency and Executive Power: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: The Presidency and Executive Power

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.

Practical Focus

Constitutional framework, branches of government, elections, and Christian civic engagement.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

The Presidency and Executive Power should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 4: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does The Presidency and Executive Power align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 4 Summary: We examined The Presidency and Executive Power through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

POL-101 — Lesson 5: Federal Judiciary and Judicial Review

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 5 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Federal Judiciary and Judicial Review within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Federal Judiciary and Judicial Review: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Federal Judiciary and Judicial Review

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

POL-101 — Lesson 7: Elections, Parties, and Primary Systems

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 7 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Elections, Parties, and Primary Systems within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Justice

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; to do justly, and to love mercy (Micah 6:8, KJV). Legal and policy study serves neighbor-love, not partisan idolatry.

Apply this principle while studying Elections, Parties, and Primary Systems: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

POL-101 — Lesson 8: Media, Propaganda, and Discernment

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 8 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Media, Propaganda, and Discernment within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Media, Propaganda, and Discernment: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Media, Propaganda, and Discernment

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.

Practical Focus

Constitutional framework, branches of government, elections, and Christian civic engagement.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- Romans 13:1-7 (KJV)
- • 1 Peter 2:13-17 (KJV)

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Media, Propaganda, and Discernment should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 8: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Media, Propaganda, and Discernment align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 8 Summary: We examined Media, Propaganda, and Discernment through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

POL-101 — Lesson 11: Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 11 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

Practical Focus

Constitutional framework, branches of government, elections, and Christian civic engagement.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- Romans 13:1-7 (KJV)
- • 1 Peter 2:13-17 (KJV)

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 11: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 11 Summary: We examined Christian Citizenship Without Idolatry of Party through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

POL-101 — Lesson 12: Capstone: Civic Engagement Action Plan

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 12 of American Government & Civic Duty (POL-101). This session explores Capstone: Civic Engagement Action Plan within the Track F — Public Policy / Legal / Civic Engagement pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This track prepares believers for law, government, and civic leadership with Micah 6:8 justice, religious liberty defense, and Romans 13 discernment.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Dignity

So God created man in his own image (Genesis 1:27, KJV). Patients, employees, tenants, and citizens bear dignity that policies must protect.

Apply this principle while studying Capstone: Civic Engagement Action Plan: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Capstone: Civic Engagement Action Plan

Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's (Matthew 22:21, KJV). Civic engagement demands discernment between legitimate authority and idolatrous statism.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8, KJV). Law and government exist to restrain evil and promote justice—not to usurp God's throne.
