Learning Outcomes

Upon completion, students will be able to:

1. Explain core concepts and vocabulary for this vocational domain at college introductory level.
2. Apply biblical ethics when secular models conflict with Kingdom priorities.
3. Complete practical assignments, scenarios, or lab exercises with documented integrity.
4. Articulate connections between vocation, stewardship, and local church ministry.
5. Pass module quizzes and capstone assessments at 70% or higher.

Assessment Overview

- Module quizzes: JSON per module (multiple choice + short answer).
- Assignments: 3–4 rubric-graded projects.
- Group projects: 2 collaborative exercises.
- Final exam: Comprehensive short and extended responses.
- Video scripts: 3–5 instructor scripts for optional production.

Christian Guardrails

- KJV citation standard; Christ-centered instruction.
- Career exploration does not replace licensure, trade apprenticeships, or professional counsel where required.
- AI tools may assist research but not replace original work or pastoral judgment.

Course Modules

MD-501 — Lesson 1: Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 1 of Advanced Biblical Hermeneutics & Expository Preaching (MD-501). This session explores Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context within the Track A — Ministry / Pastoral / Biblical Counseling pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference `SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md` and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psalm 23:1, KJV). Pastoral care flows from the Chief Shepherd's pattern—leading, feeding, protecting, and restoring sheep who stray. Every visit, phone call, and prayer embodies this metaphor when conducted in Scripture-saturated love.

Peter exhorts elders to feed the flock willingly, not for filthy lucre, being examples rather than lords (1 Peter 5:2-3, KJV). Pastoral ministry is exemplary leadership. Character precedes charisma; humility precedes platform.

Practical Focus

Graduate-level hermeneutics for preaching: discourse analysis, biblical theology, homiletical structure, and Christ-centered exposition from Genesis to Revelation.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

Graduate-Level Expectation

This module targets masters rigor: primary-source engagement, annotated bibliography entries, and synthesis across prior coursework. Minimum written reflection: 400 words with KJV citations.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 1: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 1 Summary: We examined Graduate Hermeneutics: Author, Text, and Canonical Context through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 2. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Christian Ethics Integration — Truth

Buy the truth, and sell it not (Proverbs 23:23, KJV). Financial reports, news scripts, and research data must reflect reality—not convenience.

Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

MD-501 — Lesson 4: Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track)

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 4 of Advanced Biblical Hermeneutics & Expository Preaching (MD-501). This session explores Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track) within the Track A — Ministry / Pastoral / Biblical Counseling pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference `SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md` and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track): document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track)

Peter exhorts elders to feed the flock willingly, not for filthy lucre, being examples rather than lords (1 Peter 5:2-3, KJV). Pastoral ministry is exemplary leadership. Character precedes charisma; humility precedes platform.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psalm 23:1, KJV). Pastoral care flows from the Chief Shepherd's pattern—leading, feeding, protecting, and restoring sheep who stray. Every visit, phone call, and prayer embodies this metaphor when conducted in Scripture-saturated love.

Practical Focus

Graduate-level hermeneutics for preaching: discourse analysis, biblical theology, homiletical structure, and Christ-centered exposition from Genesis to Revelation.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- HM-204
- • HM-205
- • TH-101
- • AP-501

Graduate-Level Expectation

This module targets masters rigor: primary-source engagement, annotated bibliography entries, and synthesis across prior coursework. Minimum written reflection: 400 words with KJV citations.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track) should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 4: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track) align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 4 Summary: We examined Original Language Awareness for Pastors (Non-Specialist Track) through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to Lesson 5. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

How does Mid-Course Synthesis: From Passage to Proposition align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

MD-501 — Lesson 7: Expository Preaching in Old Testament Narrative

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 7 of Advanced Biblical Hermeneutics & Expository Preaching (MD-501). This session explores Expository Preaching in Old Testament Narrative within the Track A — Ministry / Pastoral / Biblical Counseling pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference `SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md` and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Expository Preaching in Old Testament Narrative: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Expository Preaching in Old Testament Narrative

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psalm 23:1, KJV). Pastoral care flows from the Chief Shepherd's pattern—leading, feeding, protecting, and restoring sheep who stray. Every visit, phone call, and prayer embodies this metaphor when conducted in Scripture-saturated love.

Peter exhorts elders to feed the flock willingly, not for filthy lucre, being examples rather than lords (1 Peter 5:2-3, KJV). Pastoral ministry is exemplary leadership. Character precedes charisma; humility precedes platform.

Practical Focus

Graduate-level hermeneutics for preaching: discourse analysis, biblical theology, homiletical structure, and Christ-centered exposition from Genesis to Revelation.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- • HM-205
- • TH-101
- • AP-501

Graduate-Level Expectation

This module targets masters rigor: primary-source engagement, annotated bibliography entries, and synthesis across prior coursework. Minimum written reflection: 400 words with KJV citations.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Expository Preaching in Old Testament Narrative should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 7: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Expository Preaching in Prophecy and Apocalyptic: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Expository Preaching in Prophecy and Apocalyptic

Peter exhorts elders to feed the flock willingly, not for filthy lucre, being examples rather than lords (1 Peter 5:2-3, KJV). Pastoral ministry is exemplary leadership. Character precedes charisma; humility precedes platform.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psalm 23:1, KJV). Pastoral care flows from the Chief Shepherd's pattern—leading, feeding, protecting, and restoring sheep who stray. Every visit, phone call, and prayer embodies this metaphor when conducted in Scripture-saturated love.

Practical Focus

Graduate-level hermeneutics for preaching: discourse analysis, biblical theology, homiletical structure, and Christ-centered exposition from Genesis to Revelation.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.

- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

TBM & Catalog Cross-References

- • TH-101
- • AP-501

Graduate-Level Expectation

This module targets masters rigor: primary-source engagement, annotated bibliography entries, and synthesis across prior coursework. Minimum written reflection: 400 words with KJV citations.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Expository Preaching in Prophecy and Apocalyptic should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 9: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Expository Preaching in Prophecy and Apocalyptic align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 9 Summary: We examined Expository Preaching in Prophecy and Apocalyptic through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Soli Deo gloria — whether ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Historical Figure Spotlight

Research one defender of orthodoxy related to this doctrine—Augustine, Athanasius, Luther, Calvin, Spurgeon, or a modern missionary martyr. Write 150 words on how their context shaped their emphasis. Standing on their shoulders, we inherit confessions forged in controversy. Imitate their courage and Scripture saturation, not necessarily every cultural application.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

MD-501 — Lesson 10: Expository Preaching in Gospels and Epistles

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 10 of Advanced Biblical Hermeneutics & Expository Preaching (MD-501). This session explores Expository Preaching in Gospels and Epistles within the Track A — Ministry / Pastoral / Biblical Counseling pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference `SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md` and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Expository Preaching in Gospels and Epistles: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

Worship Integration

Select a hymn or worship song rich in biblical doctrine (e.g., "Holy, Holy, Holy," "And Can It Be," "A Mighty Fortress"). Analyze its lyrics for theological accuracy in light of this lesson. Lead family worship using that hymn, reading one supporting passage before singing. Theology should enliven corporate praise, not remain abstract.

Ministry Case Study

Imagine a congregant confused about this lesson's topic after watching online teaching that contradicts historic evangelical doctrine. Draft a pastoral response email that (1) expresses empathy, (2) clarifies biblical teaching with two references, (3) invites in-person conversation, and (4) avoids condescension. Pastoral communication is part of theological training, not an optional soft skill.

MD-501 — Lesson 12: Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review

Introduction

Welcome to Lesson 12 of Advanced Biblical Hermeneutics & Expository Preaching (MD-501). This session explores Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review within the Track A — Ministry / Pastoral / Biblical Counseling pathway at Twice Born Ministry Bible School.

This career track extends Twice Born Ministry's Layer 2 theology and ministry courses (TH-, PM-, CS-, MN-) with college-level pastoral formation. Cross-reference `SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md` and TBM books noted in your syllabus.

This is Layer 4 — Career Tracks content at college level (or high school dual-enrollment where noted). The King James Version remains the citation standard for all scripture. Complete BS-FND-100 or listed prerequisites before advanced modules.

Pray for wisdom before studying. Career competence without Christ-centered character produces skilled workers who build on sand. We pursue excellence as unto the Lord (Colossians 3:23).

Christian Ethics Integration — Wisdom

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God (James 1:5, KJV). Markets, laws, and technologies change; Scripture-grounded wisdom endures.

Apply this principle while studying Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.

Core Teaching

Theme: Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review

Peter exhorts elders to feed the flock willingly, not for filthy lucre, being examples rather than lords (1 Peter 5:2-3, KJV). Pastoral ministry is exemplary leadership. Character precedes charisma; humility precedes platform.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want (Psalm 23:1, KJV). Pastoral care flows from the Chief Shepherd's pattern—leading, feeding, protecting, and restoring sheep who stray. Every visit, phone call, and prayer embodies this metaphor when conducted in Scripture-saturated love.

Practical Focus

Graduate-level hermeneutics for preaching: discourse analysis, biblical theology, homiletical structure, and Christ-centered exposition from Genesis to Revelation.

Competency targets for this lesson:

- Define key terms and industry-standard vocabulary at introductory level.
- Identify biblical principles that govern ethical decisions in this domain.
- Complete hands-on or scenario-based exercises in assignments and quizzes.
- Connect vocational skills to local church ministry or community service where applicable.

Professional Standards

Career track courses prepare students for further education, certification programs, or bi-vocational ministry—they do not replace licensure, trade union apprenticeships, CPA/legal counsel, or seminary ordination tracks unless explicitly stated in prerequisites.

- • HM-205
- • TH-101
- • AP-501

Graduate-Level Expectation

This module targets masters rigor: primary-source engagement, annotated bibliography entries, and synthesis across prior coursework. Minimum written reflection: 400 words with KJV citations.

Application for Vocation and Ministry

Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review should change how you work, lead, serve customers, and witness.

Pastoral practice: Draft a ministry response, visit plan, or counseling scenario tied to this lesson. Discuss with mentor or elder board member.

Personal devotion: Write a brief prayer connecting today's vocational theme to Christ's lordship over your schedule, income, and relationships.

Local church: Share one insight with your pastor, deacon team, or small group—especially where bi-vocational ministry applies.

Evangelism: Prepare a 60-second testimony linking honest work or digital stewardship to the gospel hope you profess.

Lab, Scenario, or Field Exercise

Exercise 12: Role-play a pastoral visit, counseling intake, or board meeting scenario. Debrief using scripture and ethics checklists.

Document assumptions, resources consulted, and limitations. Submit via LMS with honor statement. Supervised field hours may count toward capstone portfolios where approved by cohort facilitator.

Discussion Questions

How does Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review align with Colossians 3:23 ("as to the Lord")?

What secular practice in this field most often conflicts with biblical ethics?

Which prerequisite course or TBM resource best supports this lesson?

How would you teach this topic to a high school dual-enrollment student?

What is one measurable action you will take this week based on this lesson?

Summary and Next Steps

Lesson 12 Summary: We examined Workshop: Full Sermon Draft with Peer Review through scripture, vocational standards, and ministry application.

Action item: Complete the module quiz (70% to pass) and begin assignment work if due this week.

Preview: Continue to the capstone module. Review SPECIALIZATION_SOURCES.md or Kingdom Capital / TBM Marketing docs as listed in your syllabus.

Supplemental Reading and Reflection

Assign one chapter from a standard systematic theology textbook or equivalent lecture notes. Summarize the author's definitions, note where Scripture proofs appear, and evaluate whether the Bible truly supports each claim. Theology students must read widely yet judge all teaching by the Word. Write a half-page response connecting supplemental reading to this lesson's theme.

Christian Ethics Integration — Stewardship

The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof (Psalm 24:1, KJV). Every vocation—accounting, medicine, media, or cloud engineering—is borrowed stewardship.

Apply this principle while studying Capstone: Expository Series Plan with Hermeneutical Defense: document ethical decisions, cite KJV where appropriate, and identify when professional practice must yield to conscience.
